

Hey Gang-gang fans
You are invited to help
launch COG's
"Bird of the year"
Gang-gang Muster

Lively Gang-gangs in a Farrer home garden

Photo: David Flannery

Join us under the old yellow box tree in Corroboree Park, Ainslie for the launch of COG's 2014 Bird of the Year survey project

The Gang-Gang Muster

Thursday 13 March - 10 am

Learn more about the survey project from COG's Chris Davey and enjoy a few Gang-gang tales told by Canberra's favourite naturalist, Ian Fraser.

A light morning tea will be provided - rsvp: kathy.eyles@anu.edu.au

Corroboree Park is off Paterson St Ainslie - if raining come to the Corroboree Park Hall.

The Gang-gang Muster is one of series of projects initiated by the Canberra Ornithologists Group (COG) to celebrate 50 years of birding in the ACT. Find out more: <http://canberrabirds.org.au/> Gang-gang survey.